

"All the Evening Newspapers in New York Combined Gained 36 1/2 Columns of Advertising Last Week Over Last Year. Of This the Evening World ALONE Gained 23, Leaving but 13 1/2 Columns of Growth to Be Divided Among the Seven Others.

WEATHER—FAIR AND COLD.
EXTRA

The

World.

WEATHER—FAIR AND COLD.
EXTRA

"Circulation Books Open to All"

"Circulation Books Open to All"

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, MARCH 12, 1906.

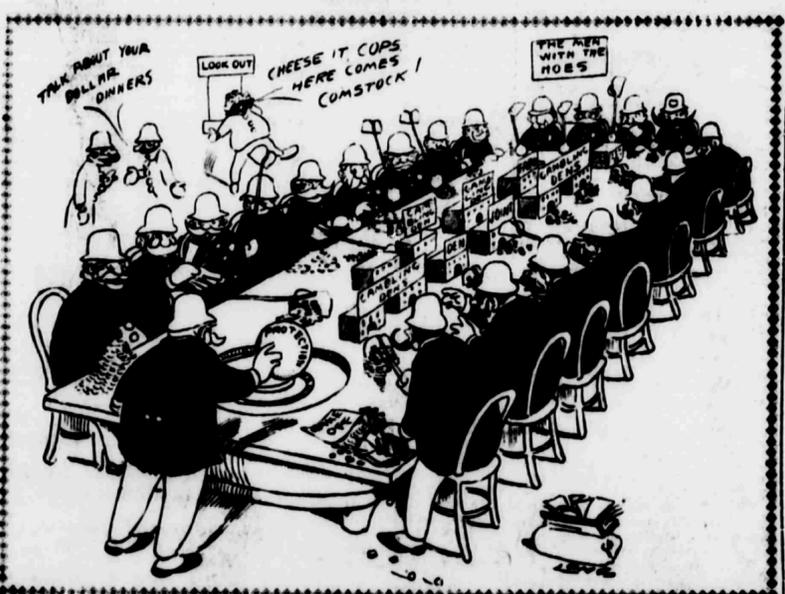

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRESIDENT AT LAST MOVES FOR PEACE!

10 P. M. EXTRA

TEN GAMBLERS ARE INDICTED.

Parkhurst Will Go Before the Grand Jury Tomorrow, Ignoring District-Attorney--Two Police Captains Summoned.

THE BIGGEST GAME OF ALL.

The Grand Jury found ten indictments against gamblers and presented them to Recorder Goff, in Part I, Court of General Sessions, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The names of those charged with keeping gaming houses are:

- Joseph Lowery, 107 East Eighty-first street.
- Henry G. Schlowitz, 401 East Sixty-first street.
- Ernest Will, 1607 Second avenue.
- Peter J. Vanni, 607 East Seventy-ninth street.
- Pauline Smith, 224 Sixth street.
- Patrick Murphy, 220 Seventh street.
- Henry Moore, 165 West Twenty-ninth street.
- Arthur Boyle, 419 East Seventy-ninth street.
- John G. Gray, 281 East Sixty-sixth street.
- Patrick Wagner, 220 East Sixty-seventh street.

The warrants were based on information furnished the Grand Jury by Anthony Comstock.

The men are out on bonds of $1,000. They have been arrested by Comstock and his agents in raids during the past week.

"Even may say for the District-Attorney that the dimes have got to close their doors tonight," said Assistant District-Attorney McIntyre to-day.

"We are going to station policemen in front of the Tivoli, the Haymarket and the other notorious dance halls, and if they don't obey the orders to close arrests will follow. This means business."

None of the police officials gave evidence to the Grand Jury, according to Mr. McIntyre. Before he left the building.

A NEW YORK "OVO VADE."
 "In the New Promised Land."
 By Blockheads.
 Sold in The Evening World News

A SWEEPING ORDER TO CLEAN OUT TENDERLOIN.

District-Attorney Gardner this afternoon sent out a hundred notices to landlords mostly in the old and new Tenderloin, that they must rid the houses of objectionable tenants at once.

This order includes not only the disorderly flats, but the principal dance halls, including, it is believed, the Haymarket and Tivoli.

The District-Attorney addressed a very curt letter to Chief Devery this afternoon calling his attention to the duties of public officials.

Mr. Gardner also replied to Dr. Parkhurst's letter. He wrote the wine that he would be glad of Dr. Parkhurst's co-operation in the suppression of vice.

SCHOOLBOY KILLED BY TROLLEY CAR

An unknown boy about eight years old was run over and killed by Fordham trolley car No. 333, of the Union Railway Company, on Third avenue opposite Grove street this afternoon.

The boy wore a dark coat, short pants, red sweater and laced shoes. In his pocket were a top and cord and a "good boy" ticket from Public School No. 62. The motorman, Edward Lawton, was arrested.

ANOTHER THIRD AVENUE LIEN

Liens were filed against the company to-day by the Providence Engineering Works for $7,412.58 and by Sanderson & Wright for $619. Both were for material furnished.

BABY TOOK CARBOLIC ACID AND WILL DIE

A two-year-old boy, John J. De Mori, of 303 East Thirty-first street, found a bottle of carbolic acid at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Kate Hennessy, at 199 Hudson avenue, Brooklyn, this afternoon. The child drank some of the poison and was removed to the Brooklyn Hospital where he will probably die.

WOMAN KILLED WHILE COLLECTING RENTS

By falling down a stairway of thirteen steps Mrs. Catherine Ball, sixty years old, of 720 East One Hundred and Seventy-second street, met instant death at 12 Taylor street this morning at 3 o'clock this afternoon. She went there to collect the monthly rents from big tenants.

LATE RESULTS AT NEW ORLEANS

FIFTH RACE—Fragible 1, First Past 2, Russell R. 2.

Good Offices of United States Offered to End Boer-British War.

A semi-official statement given out at Washington is to the effect that this country is using its good offices to end the Transvaal war.

This action of the Administration is directly in line with what the World has urged daily since the war began, contending that this power was given to Mr. McKinley under The Hague Peace Conference rules.

From the Hague comes the news that President Kruger has appealed to the great powers to intercede to stop the war.

He had previously asked Great Britain for a cessation of hostilities on the basis of independence. This Lord Salisbury emphatically refused.

In the House of Commons to-day Mr. Balfour stated that the papers in the appeal of Mr. Kruger for peace would be given out soon.

Also, in the Commons, it was stated that the Government expected the war to last six months at full pressure and six months at half-pressure, or in all one year.

In the United States Senate to-day Mr. Allen obtained the adoption of a resolution calling on Secretary Hay for any message he may have received from United States Consul Hay at Pretoria relative to peace terms.

WASHINGTON MOVING TO BRING PEACE.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—There is reason to believe that the United States Government is using its good offices to secure peace between Great Britain and the South African Republic.

This has not taken the shape of a proffer of mediation. That would be distinctly repugnant to Great Britain, and according to the rule of international law, which has, without adoption, governed the State Department in the past, could not be volunteered by us until it was known to be acceptable to both parties to the war.

But the United States might very properly serve as an intermediary to transmit an appeal for peace and the terms upon which peace can be secured.

The United States has successfully served in this capacity in the past, notably in the termination of the Chinese-Japanese war, and it is believed its good offices in this line are now being extended.

If this belief is well founded, then Adelbert Hay, United States Consul at Pretoria, has been the instrument for transmitting to the British Government, through the double intervention of the Department of State and Ambassador Choate, an application from President Kruger, and steps to be informed as to the terms upon which the war can be ended.

The facts in the case will be fully developed in a day or two.

KRUGER HAS APPEALED TO THE GREAT POWERS.

THE HAGUE, March 12.—It is learned from a reliable source that President Kruger, through the Consul at Pretoria, has appealed for the intercession of the great Powers in the Transvaal war and has also appealed to the Governments of Belgium, Holland and Switzerland.

MR. BALFOUR ADMITS APPEAL BY KRUGER.

LONDON, March 12.—Being asked in the House of Commons to-day if there was any objection for the report that President Kruger had appealed to the great Powers for the purpose of securing peace, Mr. Balfour retorted that his promise that the Government would not intercede in the Transvaal war was not intended to prevent the President from appealing to the great Powers.

FIRE FOR REVENGE.

Newark Police Believe They Have the Guilty Ones.

14 PERISHED IN FLAME

Terrible Blaze in Italian Tenement Result of Vendetta, It is Said.

VITO CREDESANO, Firebug Suspect.

Revenge was the motive that prompted a firebug to burn the tenement at Morris avenue and Fourteenth street, Newark, N. J., and doom fourteen Italians to death.

This is the police theory of the tragedy and crime.

THE DEAD.

The names of the identified dead are as follows:

- ANTONIO PALMSANO, forty years old.
- SEBASTIANO PALMSANO, his wife.
- GIUSEPPE PALMSANO, seven years old.
- NINGERTE PALMSANO, one year old.
- GASTANO PALMSANO, cousin of Antonio.
- Mrs. MELIP THOMASANO, sister of Sebastiano.
- THOMAS THOMASANO, seven years old.
- ANTONIO ROMA.

Vito Credesano, who lived in the fire-trap, is the man suspected.